WINSTON-SALEM TEACHERS COLLEGE

Established for Negroes
as Slater Industrial Academy, 1892. State-supported since 1895.

AS WE GO FORTH

As we go forth from old T. C.,
A song of love we sing to thee—
And praises to the memory
Of days at Teachers College.
Thy sons and daughters bring thee fame
Through knowledge which we here have gained.
Exaltingly, we raise thy name
O Winston-Salem Teachers College.

As we go forth from old T. C.,
Good leaders we will always be
And stand for Christianity;
As you have taught us, Teachers College
In all we do we shall proclaim
To all the world thy teaching fame.
As we go forth we raise thy name.
O Winston-Salem Teachers College.

IN MEMORY OF
DR. SIMON GREEN ATKINS
1863 - 1934
PROFESSOR, ADMINISTRATOR, EDUCATOR AND STATESMAN
OF THE
WINSTON-SALEM TEACHERS COLLEGE
CLASS OF 1896

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This 1951-1952 issue of the "Ram" appears at a critical period in the history of our nation. Great tensions, fears, and anxieties seem to prevail everywhere. The Winston-Salem Teachers College continues the responsibility of preparing its students for citizenship and service in this crisis. The young people of our locality, state, and nation are the greenhouse within which our hopes live; and, within an uncertain atomic age, our task has grown considerably more difficult—training teachers in even wider academic and co-curricular activities than may be indicated within the covers of this book. Our task includes deep concern with the full exercise of democracy and with a rendered dedication to the basic principles of our founders.

Friends, students, and alumni of the Winston Salem Teachers College welcome the annual appearance of the "Ram." This year's issue is a worthy successor to all the talented productions that have preceded, and I am confident all the readers will join me in my most hearty congratulations to this year's staff.

Sincerely Yours,

F. L. ATKINS,

President.

The "Ram" Staff expresses its sincere appreciation for the profound cooperation of the administration, the faculty, the staff, the students, the advertisers, and the patrons. We sincerely hope these pages will help you in the years to come to recall pleasant memories of Winston-Salem Teachers College. Through the chain of memory we shall never be separated from our Alma Mater. If these pages serve as a link in that chain our efforts have not been in vain.
